MARSLAND.

C. A. McGoggy went up the road on 41 Sunday.

Dawes county court has been postponed till the 24th inst.

Charley Maren was down from the homestead on Thursday.

H. G. Furman has been dipping several hundred head of cattle recently.

Mr. Carpenter, late of Belmont, is the night operator at this place now.

George Hatch spent a couple of days in town the latter part of the week.

John and Burt Furman sent out a car of hay on Saturday to Terry, S. D.

Rev. Shriver is attending Presbytery at Gordon, which convened on the 14th inst.

Attorney S. P. Tuttle, of Alliance, was a visitor at the McLaughlin home recently.

Miss Stella Owens was transferred from this place to Provo and left on Friday for that place.

Master Tom Richey spent Saturday and Sunday at the Frank Moore ranch, southwest of town.

Mrs. Bagley returned on Thursday from a three weeks' visit at the parental home in Oakdale, Nebr.

A. E. Byers made a trip to the South Platte country the latter part of the week, returning Sunday on 41.

The snow and rain of the past ten days has retarded the work of farmers, and has also been hard on young stock.

County Assessor H. Lambert, of Wayside, was in town one day last week to inspect the deputy assessors.

Dr. Eikner, of Hemingford, was in town on Monday as examining physician of applicants for life insurance.

T. F. Smith, county superintendent, came in on Thursday, remaining till Friday. He was here in the interest of those wishing to take examinations in Eighth grade work.

Mr. and Mrs. Griff Jarolemon left on Saturday for North Table, where they will spend a few weeks among relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce and daughter and Miss Lyon and Guy Lemon, all of near Belmont, attended the entertainment at this place Friday night.

Miss Hazel Furman spent Thursday and Friday in town taking examination in eighth grade work. Elizabeth Thomas and Roy Richey took examination also.

Mr. Heberly, the mail carrier to Agate, is buying old rubber, brass and copper.
He is at the Commercial, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, where the small boy having such articles to sell will find him.

The entertainment given on Friday night by Mrs. Hadley, Miss Ream, Fay Gregg and Ralph Thomas was not as well attended as it should have been, but the few who attended seemed well pleased with the performance.

County Assessor Lambert seemed to have some little trouble in getting a deputy for old Leonard and Evergreen. T. J.
Poole was appointed, but resigned. James Tollman was then appointed, but did likewise. Frank Honeyman has the work now in hand.

Grant Agnew, a former resident of near this place, arrived from the east on Friday and went out to the Furman home, remaining till Monday. He has been visiting for some months in Pennsylvania and Indiana and was returning to his home near Rawhide Buttes, Wyo.

C. H. Richey and Frank Moore spent Friday in Crawford, the latter having been summoned as a witness in the case growing out of the stealing of sixteen head of cattle from Mr. Hewins, of Chadron, by parties near Crawford. The party was bound over to district court.

Dr. Miller, of Alliance, came up on 41

Thursday, and was met by his son, True, who took him to the ranch to examine the hand of the little daughter, which was crushed in the washing machine, and which does not seem to heal as rapidly as it was at first thought it would.

Expecting that E. A. Tollman would arrive from Iowa on Sunday, where he has been visiting several months, the children and grandchildren assembled at the home of C. A. McGoggy to give him a surprise birthday party, but the old gentleman fooled them and did not come, nor has he yet arrived.

LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

Our weather continues.

Mrs. F. Nelson has about 200 young chicks already.

Lee Arnold has placed a new window in the south side of his livery office.

Mr. Ashburger is plastering up the broken patches in the hotel walls, today.

Mabel Estes is helping Mrs. J. B. Brown in her house work, out on the ranch, these days.

John Adams was called very suddenly this week, to Algona, Iowa, by the death of his brother.

Mrs. Ashburger returned Sunday from an extended visit with her daughter, about fifty miles south.

Ray Westover now rides in a splendid new buggy purchased through the Stockman's Supply company.

Roy Montgomery, Charles and Henry Lee, of Brownlee, were pleasant callers at the parsonage last Friday.

Andy Applegarth, who has been working on a ranch near Brownlee, for several months past, is again seen on our streets.

Supt. Happer of Rushville is in Lakeside testing the minds of our youths. A number are being examined for high school grades next season.

H. J. Thompson is engaged at the present time in building a house for his aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Stevenson of Colefax, Iowa who has taken a claim about four miles north of town.

Rev. Lyons and family rendered their musical to a very nice and well pleased audience at Ellsworth last Thursday evening. They anticipate going to Foster school house; also Luella are long.

Rev. George Egner gave his illustrated lecture on "Ten nights in a bar room," to a full house in Lakeside last night. A little small pox scare in the neighborhood of the Foster school, made the trip to that neighborhood a fizzle for Mr. Egner. Not so for Rev. Lyons, who took him there, however. He got a buggy smashed up that will cost about $12. for repairs.

For Rent.

Cattle For Grazing.

I wish to take in cattle to run for the summer. I will take in about 400 head. My ranch and range is in section 27, township 24, range 45.
